

Otago Chamber of Commerce – Terms and Conditions

I/we the registrant being a duly authorised officer of the applicant organisation in consideration of the chamber or issuing body from time to time granting or certifying Certificates of Origin or other documents. I/we hereby agree to accept and be bound by any laws and regulations that apply to the Certificate of Origin being applied for and any terms that the Chamber or the New Zealand Chambers of Commerce has in place in relation to the issuing of Certificates of Origin from time to time. Further that I/we will at all times keep the chamber or issuing body and its officials indemnified against any claims or demands whatsoever which may at any time be made against them, or any of them by reason of any fault, defect, omission or inaccuracy in the content of the Certificates or other documents, or in the manner of their issue, this indemnity being subject to all statutory provisions to the contrary.

I/we declare that the information contained in all applications to the Chamber by the applicant organisation for certificates or certification will be true and correct.

The registrant specifically acknowledges and agrees that the chamber or issuing body is relying solely on the information provided by the registrant in issuing the Certificate of Origin. In consideration of the Chamber certifying that all the materials are of the designated country of origin, and all services were performed in the designated country, the registrant covenants and agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Chamber, its agents, servants, employees, principals, officers, directors, parent corporations, holding companies, successors and predecessors, from and against any and all claims and demands made by or on behalf of any party receiving or relying on the Certificate of Origin, including any and all costs, expenses and attorney fees incurred by reason of any such claim, demands, or causes of action arising from and by reason of the aforementioned certification by the Chamber.

In the event of requests which stem from a legitimate enquiry from an authorised officer or someone in possession of statutory authority, Customs or officials acting with authority of the country of import, I/we hereby permit the chamber or issuing body to allow direct access, under the power of statutory authority, to such commercial information as may be required as part of the enquiry.
